RODEO ASSOCIATION MEETS.

The executive of the Rodeo Association met for a luncheon meeting in the Gardium Room recently to start the ball rolling for Drayton Valley's third Annual Rodeo which will be staged at the Rodeo Grounds just west of Drayton Valley, August 2nd and 4th.

Topnotch performances will be featured in this rodeo, as in the past two, with the very best of riders competing in the show.

This year will feature an added attraction as the Rodeo Association has been approached by the Cutting Horse Association with regard to putting on a cutting horse demonstration along with the Rodeo.

Cutting horse competitions are growing increasingly popular throughout North America and Drayton Valley will be fortunate in obtaining the added attraction for the Rodeo events.

A group of cutting horse enthusiasts have an acreage at Entwistle, which is called the Pee Vee Ranch; last year the group had a two day demonstration and competition meet, another is planned for this year. Mr. Ross, of Edmonton, is a leading figure in the Cutting Horse Association at Entwistle.

A large number of firms and organizations have indicated their intention to put a float in the opening Rodeo Parade this year, so competition will be keen in that event.

RETIRED PRINCIPAL FETTER.

On Wednesday, June 11, the entire staff of Drayton Valley Elementary School and High School met in the Home Ec. room to present Miss Rosa Walters, who is retiring from the Drayton Valley teaching staff, with a lovely Aurora Borealis pendant necklace and earrings set. Tea was served for the occasion.

Mrs. Pat Moore and Mrs. H. Griesbraht acted as hostesses for the occasion, while Mrs. Glass, as senior member of the staff, made the presentation. Mrs. Forbes poured tea.

Miss Walters, who was taken quite by surprise by the gathering, thanked the group graciously.

Other teachers present from Entwistle for the occasion were Miss Jennie Rancicki and Billy Glass. All guests present signed an autographed card to mark the event.

The occasion marked the second presentation to Miss Walters, as the graduates presented her with a beautiful bouquet of red roses at the Graduation Banquet held on May 30.

On June 16 all the teachers also met in the Staff Room for a Shower and Tea to honor two bride-elects, Miss Zetta Brown and Miss Violet Schoen whose marriages are events of early July.

Miss Vera Kos made the presentations. Mrs. Forbes recited delightfully.

The gifts for both were two pieces of copperware. Tea was served by Miss Fries, Miss Kos and Miss Desprose.

BROWN AND ROOT CONDUIT SAFETY CLASS.

Brown and Root Construction Company conducted their first safety class for their Drayton Valley office recently with a 10-day course conducted by R. H. Brown, Safety Supervisor with Pembina Pipe Lines Ltd. Mr. Brown attended classes in Edmonton to get his Safety Instructor's diploma.

29 were enrolled in the class and final examinations were conducted the evening of June 18 in Brown and Root office.

For the final exams in First Aid Practical Examiners were Gordon Zucht, Al Home, and Roy Inkster. The examinations had two sections, the Practical and the Medical; Medical examiners were Dr. MacLure, of Drayton Valley, and Dave Walker and R. Long, of the Workmen Compensation Board.

Office Manager for Brown and Root Drayton Valley office, is Ralph Kersey. R. B. Morton is Project Manager.

DRAYTON VALLEY MOTORS ROBBED.

Breaking a window to gain entry robbers entered the building of Drayton Valley Motors one night recently.

A small amount of cash was taken from the till. Apparently nothing else was taken.

KEN MASON'S COLUMN.

The race is on to choose a new leader for the Alberta Liberal party.

Last week four members of the Legislature announced they will be in the running for the position made vacant by the recent resignation of Edmonton lawyer, J. Harper Prowse.

They are Richard Hall, Liberal MLA for Athabaska riding; Abe W. Miller, MLA for Edmonton; J. Harold McLaughlin, MLA for Stony Plain, and J.W. Grant MacEwan, MLA for Calgary. Their names were announced following a party caucus in Calgary.

For the record, here is a brief biography sketch of each of the leadership hopefuls:

Mr. Hall, serving his first year in the Legislature, is a native of Edmonton, but has been in Athabaska for a number of years, as a merchant and theatre operator. He served six years as mayor of Athabaska before being elected to the Legislature.

Mr. Miller, an Edmonton lawyer, was a city alderman from 1951 until he retired from civic politics last year. He also is in his first term as an MLA. Active in welfare and community work, he also served on the municipal hospital board here from 1950 to 1954.

Mr. McLaughlin, also a first-term MLA, was born in Edmonton and now lives in Spruce Grove. He's a registered seed grower, has been active in the Agricultural Institute of Canada, and is an enthusiastic outdoor sportsman.

Mr. MacEwan, first elected to the House in 1955, is a former dean of agriculture at the University of Manitoba and has been a Calgary alderman since 1953. In the Legislature, he often leads the Opposition's attacks on government agricultural policies.

Liberal party officials said other candidates have been asked to let their names stand for the leadership, and announcements are expected shortly. Among names mentioned as possible contestants are Mayors William Havelak of Edmonton and Don Mackay of Calgary.

Of the four who have entered the race so far, Mr. MacEwan was the only one who had been mentioned previously. He is one of the more talkative members of the Opposition, and when he takes part in a debate his speeches are often quite lengthy.

Mr. Hall, on the other hand, is always brief and to the point. He can be critical with being nasty, and he doesn't speak unless he has something to say. As a result, government members listen attentively when he speaks.

Mr. McLaughlin also is a man of few words, but when he has something to say puts it across in no uncertain terms. He often takes the government to task on fish and wildlife management policies.

Mr. Miller is the liberal party's one-man commando force. When he criticised the government on any issue, he uses his quick wit, his sharp tongue and his nimble vocabulary with devastating results.

XXXX XXXX XXXX

Premier Manning is still sitting on the fence in the midst of the battle over the route of the proposed new railway to the Northwest Territories. A delegation from the Peace River country met with him last week and asked for a "strong and firm commitment" in support of a route through Grimshaw in northwestern Alberta.

Members of the group said later they didn't get a firm commitment. They quoted the premier as saying that while the government favors a route through Grimshaw, "it could hardly go on record as supporting that route and nothing else." He fell back on a previous statement that the decision is up to the federal government and the railways. They apparently favor a route through McMurray in northeastern Alberta.

Linguists at the University of Alberta are working on an All-Canadian dictionary which will define words peculiar to Canada. The news came out last week at the annual meeting here of the Canadian Linguistic Association.

The new dictionary will define such Canadianisms as "Bennett buggy", "bonspiel" and "separate schools". Researchers are turning up fascinating gems of information as they delve into the origin of words. For example, the word "baaf", used as "complain", originated in southern Alberta.

As part of the project, linguists will tape-record speech by Canadian-born citizens in an effort to arrive at truly Canadian pronunciations without the influence of other countries.

A. ANDERSON RETURNS FROM ROTARY CONVENTION IN DALLAS.

Mr. and Mrs. Anders Anderson returned recently from Dallas, Texas, where Mr. Anderson has gone as the delegate from the local Drayton Valley Rotary Club.

They logged up over 5387 miles on the trip, with the trip from Drayton Valley to Dallas with no side-trips, amounting to just over 2400 miles.

Over 15,000 delegates from 72 countries were present for the convention.

Mr. and Mrs. Anderson felt that the highlight of the convention was when they attended a "Continental Europe" session. Mr. Anderson met there a delegate from his native Denmark, a Mr. Lassen, who is Governor for Rotary in Denmark.

On the way home the Andersons visited several U.S. cities and parks.

SOAPBOX DERBY.

A large crowd watched some thirty entries compete in the 22nd Annual Soap Box Derby in Edmonton, last June 15. The race was staged on O'Connell Hill on the south side of the river. Three entries were on hand from Drayton Valley, Steve Seranas, under the banner of the Cardium Theatre, Gary Repka, for Drayton Hardware, and John (cont. next col.)

Bright, for the Pembina News Advertiser, Johnnie Bright had a mishap in the Trial Run and bent his axle, with the result that the car was disqualified. Gary and Steve got into the Final, where both gave a good account of themselves. Steve won everything in his 'B' class, and then was matched against the winner of the 'A' class where he was noosed out by last year's Provincial Champion, Jimmie Skidabod.

In the final Provincial Run-offs Jimmie Skidabod raced against the Calgary winner, Brian Randall. Jimmie won the race handily to become Provincial Champ. again this year. He will go on to Mississauga, B.C. to race there against the Western Champions and if he wins there will go on to Akron, Ohio.

In the evening following the races a banquet was put on by the sponsoring Active Club of Edmonton, in the Seven Seas Restaurant, where the boys were guests of the Club. At the banquet a featured guest was the winner of the first Soapbox Derby held in Edmonton, 22 years ago. Each of the boys contesting got a T-shirt. Many fine prizes such as bicycles, camera outfits, etc. were put up by various Edmonton business houses. Steve won a wristwatch.

Proceeds of the money taken in by the Active Club from the Soapbox Derby went to help buy equipment for the Edmonton School for Retarded Children.

Drayton Valley was better represented than any other place outside of Edmonton, with three entries and seven sponsoring firms.

Lasting impressions—the forces at work bringing together the minds of men in a better understanding and the desire to make each community a better place to live, work, and play.

By-the-way: The Drayton Valley Club was honored in traveling the farthest to attend the Convention.

The Lions Den

(Past President of the D.V. Lions Club, Jim Gleneek, writes of the Lions Convention held in Great Falls, Montana):

32nd ANNUAL CONVENTION, DISTRICT 37, HELD JUNE 4, 5, 6, 7, in GREAT FALLS. HEADQUARTERS: RAINBOW HOTEL.

Between 1400 and 1500 Lions and their Ladies attended an interesting programme of business, social and entertainment. Highlights featured a Golf tournament and pre-mixer Dance Wednesday afternoon and evening. Andy Trach, former Draytonite, won the golf tournament.

Official welcome on Thursday followed by several reports. A noon luncheon honoring old Monarchs and 100% attenders. The ladies were entertained at the Meadow Lake Country Club with lunch and a style show.

An inspiring address was given Thursday afternoon by Dr. Orlo Brees, Public Relations, Representing the National Association of Manufacturers, Palo Alto, California.

Thursday evening a Barbecue was put on in the fairgrounds.

Friday morning saw Panel Discussions, at the Friday luncheon the Huntley Lions took 1st prize when 100% Lions members entertained with a can-can song and dance.

District 37B gathered for a District Dinner at 7, Friday evening, with District Governor Ken Deaill in the chair, followed by the District Governors ball at the Civic Centre.

Saturday morning featured a breakfast honoring key members, followed by reports of several committees.

The Necrology service on Saturday morning was very impressive, honoring the passing of Lions in the past year.

The ladies were treated to a tour of the city and suburbs Saturday morning.

Saturday evening wound up the convention with a Banquet, highlighted by an inspiring address by R. Roy Keaton, International Director, Lions International.

Throughout the convention, Paul Guenette from Edmonton was busy spreading propaganda for next year's convention at Jasper. As you may recall, District 37B is host to all of District 37 embracing Alberta and Montana, in Jasper next year.

There is a game scheduled for Drayton Valley every Tuesday and Thursday at 6:30 p.m., and town support would be greatly appreciated to help defray expenses.

Meanwhile, the Seniors journeyed to Jasper for a game with the Jasper Seniors and were edged out 4-3 in a very close contest.

ALBERTA LEASE SALE JULY 22
OFFERS 22 PEMBINA PARCELS.

A total of 22 parcels in the Pembina field for a total of 11260 acres will be put up for bid by the Government of Alberta on July 22.

As well as the land up for lease-sale in the Pembina field the adjoining key-stone field will also see some lease activity with a total of 1120 acres in 4 parcels being put up there.

Considering the oil market the last lease sale in the Pembina field netted the government a goodly sum, with over 24 million dollars being paid. It will be interesting to note how well this sale goes over as, while the long-range picture on crude remains bright, the short-range chances of any sudden increase in oil sales is not very good.

The land up for lease in this field is scattered throughout the field, with the largest single block being located just northwest of Drayton Valley, in sections 31 to 36 at the top of Township 49, in range 8, just south of Easyford.

Some of it is on the east side of the Saskatchewan River, with some located north of the Pembina, in the Cynthia area.

LOCAL GIRL WINS AWARD.

Audrey Getzinger, a grade seven pupil in Mrs. McIntosh's room won an award for a Farm Safety Essay recently. The essay was written in competition with grades seven and eight pupils in Stony Plain School Division. The contest was conducted under the auspices of the Alberta Safety Council.

A plaque, which will be hung in the school was presented and with it a pin which Audrey will wear. Presentations were made by R.D. Jorgenson, of Stony Plain School Division, who is also chairman of the Farm Safety Committee, in the Alberta Safety Council.

The plaque is inscribed with Audrey's name and will be hung in the corridor of the elementary school. This is the first time this award has been made to Drayton Valley school.
